

Quick Start Guide

Welcome

Thanks again for investing in AI Micro Product Generator!

This quick start guide is designed to get you up and running fast by providing you with a step-by-step approach.

Naturally, you will still need to go through the training, which goes into detail on how to perform these steps.

STEPS:

1. Determine the outcome that you want from this training
2. Watch and study the video training series
3. Create the accounts specified in the training
4. Practice generating hooks, outlines, and content
5. Go through all downloadable materials
6. Perform market research to see what the market is doing today
7. Look at the trends and offer types. What can we produce that has value?
8. Select an offer (or check the supplied “Red Hot” list / Market Data document)
9. Create some hooks based on the sales letter for the target offer
10. Create an outline based on the chosen hook
11. Explode out the outline, generating content for each item in the outline
12. Format your microproduct per the training
13. Finalize and package your main product
14. Develop at least one upgrade, preferable 2 or 3, in the same way
15. Configure your WarriorPlus products and offer on warriorplus.com
16. Create your sales landing page
17. Create your member’s or thank-you page if required
18. Test everything
19. Submit offer for review
20. Activate offer once approved
21. Repeat steps 6 – 20 as often as possible to grow a list
