

SIX FIGURE SIDE HUSTLE

DONE-WITH-YOU

Reference Guide

INTRODUCTION

Congratulations on investing in the Six Figure Side Hustle done-with-you opportunity!

This strategy is a simplified, yet highly effective approach for generating leads with affiliate marketing products.

Furthermore, there are designed to be easy to use and easy to duplicate across a variety of products and online markets.

This enables you to use the templates provided in this package on almost any online product or affiliate marketing sales funnel.

The funnels consist of:

1. Lead Capture Funnels for pre-selected offers
2. Email Templates that pre-sell the selected offers
3. Additional bonus material you can give away

Two types of funnels are included.

You can use either funnel type.

1. HTML5 Responsive Funnels (Hosted on your webhost)
2. Clickfunnels Funnels (Added to your Clickfunnels 1.0 account)

How it works is like this:

- Step 1: Request approval using the links provided
- Step 2: Add your opt-in form code to the provided landing page
- Step 3: Upload to your web host (or install to Clickfunnels)
- Step 4: Send traffic to your pages to build a list and make sales

When visitors are served this page, they optin and get placed on your lists. You then redirect them through to your affiliate link after they've opted in.

Note: If the buyer is already on your list, you can skip the optin step, and send the click directly through a redirect link that sends traffic to your offer affiliate link.

These types of funnels are best used for traffic that has not seen any of your promotions before. Emails are included that promote the offer to a list that has opted into previous funnels.

1. OFFER LIST

Below you will find a list of ever-green offers that consistently sell on cold and warm traffic. These offers were selected because they continually convert at predictable rates and produce decent revenue when promoted properly.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

When requesting offers published by Luther Landro, be sure to include a message in the Request Notes box that indicates that you are taking this course. It can be as simple as:

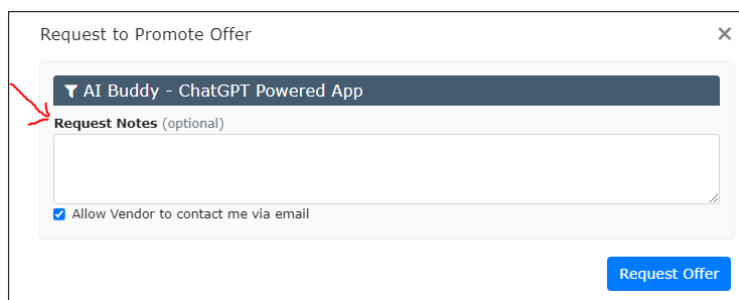

"I'm taking Create N Cash, please approve."

...in this way I know you are a student. Students get guaranteed approval from me.

When requesting offers from another vendor, include a message such as:

"I am enrolled in Luther Landro's Create N Cash course and he recommended your offer."

I can't guarantee that other vendors will approve your request because I have no control over other people. If you mention that you're taking my course, it should influence their decision.

NOTE:

In the next section, I will provide you with email templates to use when promoting this offer to an email list.

Each offer is identified and includes a sequence number. This is the order in which to send the emails.

Add your redirect link (that sends traffic to your affiliate link) to link text that has these characters preceding the line >>> or ==>

Also, some emails contain images that will enhance click-throughs and conversions. A resource link is provided so that you can insert the image into your email using your autoresponders email editor.

Your redirect link should also be attached to this image, because people will naturally click the image.

Lastly, feel free to add bonus PLR or other content to your affiliate links, which can help you stand out and motivate fence-sitters off the fence.

Top result in LinkedIn's search with a 3-minute hack?

This is hands down the craziest trick I've ever seen...

There's a simple hack you can do to your profile that will leapfrog you to the top of LinkedIn's search in about 3 minutes.

Check this out:

>>> Top search result for a massively competitive keyword.

The best part is that 99% of LinkedIn profiles are NOT using this trick (or spending any time optimizing for LinkedIn search) which means this strategy gives you an unfair advantage.

Find out how to rank your profile and how to use it to generate sales leads here (discount starting early):

Top result in LinkedIn's search with THIS 3-minute search hack.

Being the top result for the right keyword can generate 10-15 consulting leads per week.

Look out for an email later on with some tips on how to design your profile to pull leads into your inbox.

P.S. Grab this now at an incredible discount. Check this out before the discount ends.

Weird LinkedIn profile gets inbound consulting leads?

Imagine: Every time you open your LinkedIn account you get messages popping up like these:

...Dozens of local business owners who read your profile and immediately send you a message asking for help in their business.

I've been experimenting with my profile in a lot of weird ways and discovered a simple formula that not only gets biz owners reaching out to me for a consultation...

...It also ranks my profile to the top of LinkedIn's search results AND recommendation systems.

Take a look at the weird stuff that has been working here:

Weird tricks that pull 10-15 leads per week from your LinkedIn Profile [Sale Starts Now]

Pro Tip: A few students have set up multiple profiles using this method and ranked each one for different keywords, effectively doubling and tripling the number of leads they get passively.

I have yet to try this particular trick, but students report as many as 70 inbound local business leads per week as a result.

This and other tactics revealed in this guide will deliver BIG results in 2022...

And we may have only scratched the surface on what's possible with LinkedIn.

Here's to your business.

Deal Inside...

Want an easy way to book consulting clients?

I'm offering my top-selling coaching program LinkedIn Local Raider at a massive discount...

This program will show you how to build a LinkedIn Profile that attracts 5-10 new clients a month.

>>> Lock in your discount on LinkedIn Local Raider here <<<

FACT: LinkedIn is 277% more effective at turning visitors into leads than Facebook.

Take a look at these results published by Hubspot:

Traffic coming from LinkedIn had a 277% higher conversion over traffic from Facebook.

This should come as no surprise...

People browse Facebook to watch funny cat videos and spy on ex-girlfriends.

LinkedIn, on the other hand, attracts people looking to grow their business and career.

In fact, LinkedIn is so effective that multi-million dollar marketing agencies use LinkedIn as their sole source of new leads and clients.

I've recently discovered a way to hack LinkedIn's search algorithm and leapfrog any profile to the top search result AND it works for any keyword in minutes.

That means you can be the first thing local business owners in your market see when they are looking for SEO, marketing, social media, or any other service.

Learn how to use this hack on your profile here:

>>>Recently Discovered Hack Leapfrogs You To The Top of LinkedIn Search

Just adding these tweaks to your profile is enough to generate 10-15 leads per week.

And for the next few days ONLY, you can get these hacks at a HUGE Discount...

Look out for an email later on with a case study on one of my students who used this to book $20,000 in recurring payments from consulting clients.

You appeared in 2,045 searches on LinkedIn this week...

Want to get biz owners reaching out to you ready and eager to pay you a healthy consulting fee in 2023?

Well, with a few small tweaks of your LinkedIn profile YOU can get in front of thousands of local business owners every week who are searching for the services you offer.

Take a look at the email I got from LinkedIn:

My profile appeared in 2,045 searches... Most of which are business owners looking for help with 'online marketing'.

I know this is the case because I ranked my profile for the keyword 'online marketing' and now I appear at the top when my target market searches for it.

This trick works for any keyword... SEO Help, social media consulting, ANYTHING your target client would be searching for to find the help they need.

Combine this with a properly written profile (you must write your profile like a sales letter and NOT a resume) and you will turn those views into inbound consulting leads.

My profile generates 10-15 leads per week organically through LinkedIn search.

Find out how to rank your profile and start generating leads here:

Recently Discovered Hack Leapfrogs You To The Top of LinkedIn Search [Discount Link]

Fact: 99% of profiles are NOT using this hack, and you will instantly leapfrog over them in results once you implement this.

Make these simple changes to your LinkedIn profile today, and you can start seeing leads come in by the end of the week.

LinkedIn is stealing leads?

Ending Soon: use the 90% OFF Christmas Coupon. Details below...

If you have a LinkedIn profile then there is a good chance LinkedIn has been sending your contacts to other consultants.

Every profile has a sidebar that contains other 'recommended' profiles.

If you are a marketing consultant odds are LinkedIn will suggest other consultants to the people viewing your profile (and if you are in my market you can be guaranteed that I am at the top of that list thanks to LinkedIn Search Optimization).

Now as much as I would love to steal your leads, I feel it's important you learn how to turn this 'feature' off.

It's a simple setting to change, it's just buried in LinkedIn's settings.

Find out how to turn it off here: >>> Prevent LinkedIn From Stealing YOUR Leads Here...
(Discount Link)

Whenever I turn this on, there are always 1 or 2 attractive blondes in the recommendation list trying to lure client's away from my profile.

I may be a damn good consultant... But there's no way I'm keeping a biz owner's attention away from that.

10 LinkedIn messages that close deals - Customer-Only Deal Inside

Check out this deal below...

Ever hear that it takes 7-10 contacts to make a sale?

Apparently, that fact comes from research done by Microsoft.

Even more interesting, that same research report revealed that 89% of sales people give up after contact number 4.

That means if you follow up with a lead for the 5th time, you've already put yourself ahead of 89% of other salespeople.

This is why when I approach a business owner, I use a 10-message sequence to sell them on my fees.

The sequence starts out with a non-sales, non-business question that gets the conversation started and has a 70% response from the business owner.

Then over the course of 9 more messages, I uncover what struggles the owner currently has in their business as well as what services they are already in the market for.

By message 10... I simply offer them the solution they told me they need.

Sounds simple? It is.

MOST sales people just mass spam thousands of business owners once pitching what THEY want to sell, hoping for a 1% closing rate.

My method builds rapport and identifies what the business owner NEEDS rather than selling on them what I want to sell.

I close 1 in 10 with this method.

Sure, there is more work and more messages with each business owner, but that's how I like to do business. A handful of clients that I have a friendly and fun relationship with... rather than mass cold selling people I don't know.

YOU can use the same 10-message strategy that I do to turn leads into long term paying clients.

Get your hands on my 10 message template here:

Customer Only Discount >>> 10 LinkedIn messages that close deals (70% response with 1 in 10 becoming clients)

Look out for an email from me later on some of the tricks that I use to get a 70% response from the business owners I message.

70% response from business owners?

Cold messaging sucks.

You spam a million contacts hoping that 1% will reply back ready to buy what you are offering.

And honestly... This used to be my main approach to landing consulting clients.

Lately, I've been doing A TON of prospecting on LinkedIn and quickly realized the 'mass cold message' approach does not work.

In fact, early on I got my account BANNED for sending too many messages and getting complaints from biz owners. The nerve of them!

After creating a new account I started taking a different approach to my contacts on LinkedIn.

Instead of trying to sell biz owners right away, I used funny emails and simple questions to start a normal non-sales conversation.

It took some tweaking... But I managed to get a cold message that generates a 70% response from local business owners.

Once the conversation is started, it's easy to get them to open up about the problems they are having in their business, and what services they are already in the market for. I use a pre-written 10 message sequence that is more conversational style than it is hard selling.

10 messages might seem like a lot, however, if you follow this pattern you'll close 1 in 10 businesses on becoming clients.

Compare that to the 1% spray and pray used by most marketers.

You can see the message sequence I've been using here:

>>> These Messages Get A 70% Response From Local Business Owners -- 90% Discount...

Send more emails to fewer prospects and close deals.

The best part is you not only establish a better relationship with your clients...

You also build a relationship with the business owners who don't buy from you. This opens the doors to referrals, recommendations, and introductions that you never would have had if you just mass messaged them.

did LinkedIn send you this?

LinkedIn sent out a message to their most connected members a little while back about their plans to expand on LinkedIn groups.

It seems LinkedIn is trying to catch up to Facebook in the 'groups' department.

Everyone is starting a Facebook group these days, and LinkedIn is trying to get in on the action.

When you create a group, LinkedIn will automatically promote and recommend that group to whatever target audience you choose.

Picture this: You build a group targeting local business in your area who want help with SEO.

LinkedIn then promotes this group to biz owners, and before you know it you've got dozens joining every week.

Now the best part, as the group's owner YOU can send direct email messages to everyone in the group.

This is a massive opportunity and generates dozens of leads every time you send a message.

Learn how to create groups that target local business owners here (Discount Link)

Remember: you can create as many LinkedIn groups as you want, each one pulling in leads from a specific market or niche.

Look out for an email later on with some details on how to do this effectively.

Biz Owners Are Paying $3,000/month for this new Facebook service...

Facebook has recently announced 3 new services to help drive customers to local businesses.

Consultants who can offer these services stand to earn $3,000/month or more from the clients who need them:

Marketing agencies are scrambling to be the first to offer this to clients who are sold after a single demonstration.

Find out which 3 services biz owners are going crazy for here:

>>>Biz Owners Are Paying $3,000/Month For This New Facebook Service \

At $3,000/month it would only take 4 clients to earn a solid 6-figure income.

If you take the time to offer this to just one business owner per week, YOU will have landed 4 clients in the next 30 days.

Take action now, and {use this automatic coupon}, and your entire life can change before the summer starts.

I'll be emailing you later with some more details on these services, and some tips to help you sell them.

This offline service is in the news (biz owners WANT this)...

(Your discount link is below)

Want to offer a hot new service that local business owners already want?

Recently, Facebook has released a 'Local Directory' to compete directly with Yelp, and it's been all over the news...

Biz owners are scrambling to get their location listed in this directory, and ranked higher than their competitors.

Ranking in the top of this local directory can send a FLOOD of customers their way. Being last, or worse not listed means they will lose customers to their competition.

It's easy to get a business listed, and surprisingly fast to get ranked at the top of this directory.

YOU can get paid $3,000 a month or more by business owners to provide this as a service. All you have to do is follow a simple checklist, that gets their listing ranked to the top every time.

Check out the details here: >>> SALE: Rank Clients In Facebook's Directory And Get Paid \$3,000 a Month...

Pro tip: Go after the businesses in your area that are listed in this directory but are at the bottom of the list.

These are business owners who are at least trying to be in the directory, and would be open to paying someone to help.

One of my coaching students has been sending messages to these leads and is closing 2 out of 5 in his home town.

Let me know how it works for you.

- NAME

P.S. Remember... Everything you need to start selling and servicing clients is done-for-you in this package.

Use the copy paste sales materials to land your first client and let outsourcers do all the real work. Your job should be focused on growing your new business, not running it.

Rank in Facebook's 'local directory'

In an attempt to compete with Yelp, Facebook has release a 'local directory' for businesses.

Ranking in the top 5 of this directory can send a FLOOD of customers into any business whether it's a coffee shop, restaurant, spa, or retail store.

Over the past few months I've managed to rank dozens of client's in this directory using a simple checklist:

The best part is that clients who get ranked are more than happy to pay $3,000/month to keep their biz in the listing.

Right now NO ONE is approaching local business owners with this offer making this a completely untapped opportunity for freelance consultants who need a service to offer.

Learn how to rank any page to the top of Facebook's directory here: >>> $9 SALE: Rank in Facebook's 'local directory' <<<

Biz owners are paying $3,000 or more per month for this service right now. All it takes is a single demo over email to get them to hire you.

Follow the instructions on this page and you will land your first paying clients by the end of the week.

Rogue Facebook pages are stealing customers...

Warning: Unclaimed Facebook listings are ending up as 'rogue pages'

When a business owner does not claim their local Facebook listing, ANYONE can post on it including bad reviews and misinformation:

In some cases, the listing can be claimed by a competitor or any random person who can then write whatever they want on the page.

This creates a MASSIVE opportunity for local consultants...

Rogue pages like this one are easy to find, and all it takes is a single email alerting the business owner to the problem for them to frantically hire you to fix it.

Reclaiming a Facebook listing is easy, and only takes a few days after a submission to Facebook. You can easily charge $500 or more for this service.

Once you've helped a business owner reclaim their page, they are an easy sale on local marketing services.

I've put together a system that will help you find unclaimed Facebook pages, and quickly sell the business owners who need help reclaiming their page.

Find out how to offer this service starting today here:

>>>Biz Owner's Are Paying $500+ To Anyone Who Can Help Them Reclaim 'Rogue' Facebook Pages.

Once you've reclaimed a biz owner's Facebook page, you will have a client for life.

The average Facebook marketing client is worth about $3,000/month. It would only take 3-4 to earn a steady 6 figure income providing services that can be outsourced for cheap.

I'll be sending you an email tomorrow with some recommended services you can provide clients to pull in $3k or more every month.
